

Contributor Covenant Code of Conduct

Our Pledge

We as members and contributors pledge to make participation in our community a harassment-free experience for everyone, regardless of age, body size, visible or invisible disability, ethnicity, sex characteristics, gender identity and expression, level of experience, education, socio-economic status, nationality, personal appearance, race, caste, color, religion, or sexual identity and orientation.

We pledge to act and interact in ways that contribute to an open, welcoming, diverse, inclusive, and healthy community.

Our Standards

Examples of behavior that contributes to a positive environment for our community include:

- * Demonstrating empathy and kindness toward other people
- * Being respectful of differing opinions, viewpoints, and experiences
- * Giving and gracefully accepting constructive feedback
- * Accepting responsibility and apologizing to those affected by our mistakes, and learning from the experience
- * Focusing on what is best not just for us as individuals, but for the overall community

Examples of unacceptable behavior include:

- * The use of sexualized language or imagery, and sexual attention or advances of any kind
- * Trolling, insulting or derogatory comments, and personal or political attacks
- * Public or private harassment
- * Publishing others' private information, such as a physical or email address, without their explicit permission
- * Other conduct which could reasonably be considered inappropriate in a professional setting

Enforcement Responsibilities

Community leaders are responsible for clarifying and enforcing our standards of acceptable behavior and will take appropriate and fair corrective action in response to any behavior that they deem inappropriate, threatening, offensive, or harmful.

Community leaders have the right and responsibility to remove, edit, or reject comments, commits, code, wiki edits, issues, and other contributions that are not aligned to this Code of Conduct, and will communicate reasons for moderation decisions when appropriate.

Scope

This Code of Conduct applies within all community spaces, and also applies when an individual is officially representing the community in public spaces. Examples of representing our community include using an official e-mail address, posting via an official social media account, or acting as an appointed representative at an online or offline event.

Enforcement

Instances of abusive, harassing, or otherwise unacceptable behavior may be reported to the community leaders responsible for enforcement at [INSERT CONTACT METHOD].

All complaints will be reviewed and investigated promptly and fairly.

All community leaders are obligated to respect the privacy and security of the reporter of any incident.

Enforcement Guidelines

Community leaders will follow these Community Impact Guidelines in determining the consequences for any action they deem in violation of this Code of Conduct:

1. Correction

Community Impact: Use of inappropriate language or other behavior deemed unprofessional or unwelcome in the community.

Consequence: A private, written warning from community leaders, providing clarity around the nature of the violation and an explanation of why the behavior was inappropriate. A public apology may be requested.

2. Warning

Community Impact: A violation through a single incident or series of actions.

Consequence: A warning with consequences for continued behavior. No interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, for a specified period of time. This includes avoiding interactions in community spaces as well as external channels like social media. Violating these terms may lead to a temporary or permanent ban.

3. Temporary Ban

Community Impact: A serious violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior.

Consequence: A temporary ban from any sort of interaction or public communication with the community for a specified period of time. No public or private interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, is allowed during this period. Violating these terms may lead to a permanent ban.

4. Permanent Ban

Community Impact: Demonstrating a pattern of violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior, harassment of an individual, or aggression toward or disparagement of classes of individuals.

Consequence: A permanent ban from any sort of public interaction within the community.

Attribution

Decisions: Both partners shall bring up ideas and solutions to the table and if they both disagree, than a third opinion shall be asked

Attendance: Frequency of attendance shall be attending all CSC106 classes, as well as any outside meetings that both partners have scheduled. This shall be 2-3 times a week. Legitimate reasons for missing include but are not limited to family emergencies, sickness (Unless scheduled a zoom meeting) and personal emergencies

Assignments: The project will be broken into sections consisting of manageable bits of code. The group will deal with members who don't complete assignments by contacting them, as well as the professor or the TA's. If the member has poorly completed an assignment, they shall be inquired to seek extra help from the TA's to enhance their skills

Meeting Times and Locations: Every week we shall throw out dates and times for working on the project and plan our schedules. Again the time spent every week should be at most two to three days. Possible on site locations include the library or any other free and quiet space.

Agenda/Notes: They will be taken by one person or the other every other week

Promptness/lateness: The member in question shall be contacted about their work and also the TA's notified to possibly help catch the member up in the work.

Conversational Courtesies: Both members shall allow for the other to speak on what they think should be done on topics of the day and provide a comfortable workspace to achieve a common goal

Enforcement/feedback: The team will enforce its own rules by having a contract as well as contacting the professor if the other doesn't pull their end. Both individuals prefer to receive and give feedback through comments on documents and through email. Both members shall send the code that they formed to the other member for checking.

These statements above we shall uphold,
